This introductory book contains sufficient theory to lay the foundation for higher speeds.

An alternative course book containing all the Teeline theory offering a complete course for students and teachers. it is divided into small learning units with a wide range of examples and exercises at each stage.

Following on from the "Teeline Gold Course Book", this is intended to develop students' speed. The book should enable teachers to structure their classes, once they have introduced the basic Teeline theory, by reviewing and extending the theory. It also develops the theory of word groupings.

The flexible Teeline system of shorthand is based on the English alphabet, and gives students scope for developing their own style of writing. This student pack consists of one copy of each of three "Teeline Gold" books - the course book, the workbook and the word list.

This book is designed for use in a classroom or for self-study. By following these short simple chapters you'll be shorthand literate in no time at all.

Interviewing for Journalists details the central journalistic skill of how to ask the right question in the right way. It is a practical and concise guide for all print and online journalists - professionals, students and trainees - whether writing news stories or features for newspapers and magazines, print and web. Interviewing for Journalists focuses on the many types of interviewing, from the routine street interview, vox pop and press conference to the interview used as the basis of an in-depth profile. Drawing on previously published material and featuring interviews with successful columnists such as Emma Brockes, who writes for the Guardian and the New York Times and Andrew Duncan of Radio Times. Interviewing for Journalists covers every stage of interviews including research, planning and preparation, structuring questions, the importance of body language, how to get a vivid quote, checking material and editing it into different formats. Interviewing for Journalists includes: a discussion about the significance and importance of the interview for journalism advice on how to handle face-to-face interviewees with politicians, celebrities and vulnerable people advice on dealing with PRs how to carry out the telephone and online interview tips on note-taking and recording methods including shorthand a discussion of ethical, legal and professional issues such as libel, doorstepping, off-the-record briefings and the limits of editing a glossary of journalistic terms and notes on further reading.

An alphabetical list of common word groupings which encourages students to use more word groupings when taking shorthand dictation. It also explins the value of word groupings in building up speed and outlines grouping principles.

For the most efficient and safest outline, turn to the Teeline Gold Word List. In alphabetical order it contains recommended Teeline outlines for over 12,000 words - the sort of words that might be expected to appear frequently in non-technical material.
